

Wellspring Alberta's

MONEY MATTERS

Cost: Free

Where: Online via Zoom or by phone

Who: Adults living with cancer - those diagnosed and caregivers

Our Money Matters program, delivered by a social worker, is designed to assist with information and resources related to income replacement programs, drug coverage, returning to work, insurance questions, community resources, estate information, etc. The program also offers free clinics, with individualized appointments on the topics of financial advice, income tax (annually), and LTD and employment law.

To learn more visit wellspringalberta.ca or call 1.866.682.3135.